Review of the Helmsley Youth Club production of Beauty and the Beast

Beauty and the Beast.—The second annual pantomime given by the Helmsley Youth Club was presented in the Court House, on Tuesday, Wednesday and yesterday. This year's choice was Beauty and the Beast, produced by Mr. L. F. Webber (club leader). The cast included 36 club members, mostly under the age of 14. Anne Milne made an attractive Beauty. She was outstanding by the distinctness of her speech. Prince Galliano, alias the Beast, was played by Doreen Humpleby. An excellent characterisation of Dame Honeybun was given by Jean McKee. The Dame seemed to be a sort of palace housekeeper to the Prince, and her excitement as she busied herself about her duties on the day of his wedding gave an added spirit to the play. Others worthy of note were L. Snowdon, as Maurissimozo, an evil fairy, B. Rivis, who made a dainty good fairy, J. Mallory and J. Gill as Beauty's sisters, and Margaret Wilson as Philanzo, the servant who loves Beauty. The garden scenes in the pantomime were particularly delightful, and the fairy dances and songs effective. The cast included: L. Snowdon, B. Rivis, R. Winspear, A. Richardson, J. Kneeshaw, E. Bean, A. Milne, J. Mallory, J. Gill, M. Wilson, E. Sonley, D. Ward, G. Humpleby, J. Wright, J. McKee, K. Snowdon, D. Humpleby, B. Wright, M. Milne, S. Gill, E. Frankland, B. Mallory, C. Rivis, A. Bradley, S. Ford, S. Hartas, F. Maynard, V. Holmes, K. Maynard, E. Smith, R. Snowdon, L. Maynard.
